

Dr. Randles hired as LR Assistant Superintendent

April 17, 2009

The Logan-Rogersville Board of Education has selected Dr. Shawn Randles to replace current assistant superintendent, Dr. Gary Hogue, who is leaving at the end of this school year to serve as assistant superintendent in the Independence School District. Dr. Randles will begin his tenure on July 1, following Hogue's departure in June.

During the 2008-2009 school year Dr. Randles has been the principal at Sparta high school. Prior to this year, he served as principal and assistant principal at Buffalo high school for six years. Dr. Randles has been very instrumental in establishing Professional Learning Communities in the districts in which he has served. He brings additional experience to the district in the areas of instruction, professional development, and school facilities.

Dr. Randles has a Doctorate in Education from St. Louis University, his Master's degree is from Southwest Baptist University, and his Bachelors degree is in Education from Missouri State University. His wife, Alana is a 5th grade elementary school teacher at Ozark Upper Elementary. They have two children Calleigh, 9 years of age, and Ryder, 3 years of age.
