

This brochure includes many services available to families in the Logan-Rogersville area. However, there is no possible way to list all available services. These listings are provided to assist you in finding services for your family. The referral services list is not meant to limit who you choose to contact for services.

If you have had contact with other agencies or businesses you believe could benefit others in this area, please contact one of the school counselors so that we can add that agency to our list.
